PING BODIE DRAFTED BUT SPURNS YANKS

New York, Sept. 20.-Three new Yankees are soon to join the already huge gathered by Duke Farrell, Joe Kelly and Bobby Gilks. They are our old friend Ping Bodie, one time fence buster of the White Edx and this sea-son a member of Harry Wolverton's Venice club of the Pacific Coast league. Bodie and Piercey, a pitcher, have been drafted by the Yankees. Another hurler who has been drafted and signed is Sambo Ross of the Chatta-nooga club of the Southern league. Ross was a sand lot phenom in Jackson, Tenn., last year, was farmed out to Ottawa of the Canadian league and since Labor Day has been with Kid Elberfield's team. He is a southpaw: Bodie will join the Yanks, as he has balked at the salary offered and has been approached by the Feds.

RITCHIE TRAINS HARD FOR BATTLE WITH JOE SHUGRUE

New York, Sept. 20-Training for his fight with Joe Shugrue at the Garden on the night of October 4, Willie Ritchie, the American lightweight champion, spent four weeks in the mountains of California before arriving in this city last week. Hunting and fishing were the principal recreations, while horseback riding to and from the game fields hardened the

BILLY LUSH NEW PHYSICAL TEACHER FOR FORDHAM BOYS

New York, Sept. 20-A new departure in the supervision of athletes at Fordham was made Saturday when it was announced that William H. Lush, successful coach of last year's nine, had been appointed the first physical director at the Bronx University. Lush's appointment comes as a sequel to the athletic boom launched by the alumni last winter and meets a need long felt in Fordham athletic affairs. The appointment of Mr. Lush has put practically all athletics at Fordham under the Yale system of instruction. Besides Lush, Vaughan, the football coach, is a former Yale end and was also assistant coach at Yale.
